HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Robbed in daylight in front of Mount Royal station, Baltimore, of $90, with which to pay for an operation to be performed upon his elder brother, was the pathetic experienced yesterday afternoon of Jerome Goad, 19 years old, of Roanoke, Va. The boy notified the police and gave descriptions of the two men whom he says held him up. He has also wired his father of his misadventure and is deeply distressed over his loss, fearing that his brother, who is in the Johns Hopkins Hospital, cannot be operated upon for lack of funds.

Young Goad told his story to Patrolman Noel, whom he found on Charles street, near Mount Royal avenue, shortly after he met with his mishap. He said that he had been counting a roll of bills when he heard two men approaching from the rear. Seeing him with the money, he says, one of them pinioned his arms to his side, while the other snatched the bills from him. They made off, one of them, he says, running down Cathedral street and the other running down Mount Royal avenue. The attack had been so sudden and unexpected that before the boy could recover from his surprise the men had made good their escape.

"I screamed for help," Goad told the patrolman, "as soon as one of the men threw his arms around me, for I knew they were after my money. No one was passing, and although I closed my hands over the bills, the taller of the two men twisted my arms so that I was compelled to to open my hands. I looked about as they let go of me, but not a soul was in sight, and I then hurried down the street to find an officer."

Despite the quick work of the thieves, Goad was able to give an excellent description of the men, and, with the patrolman, hurried to the scene of the attack, but no trace of them could be found.

TRAGEDY IN FAIRFAX.

His brain in a whirl because of overindulgence in hard cider, and maddened because he was contradicted on the merits and value of a horse, Joseph Trammell shot and killed his brother-in-law, Frank Peacock, in the latter's dining-room at Forestville, Fairfax county, yesterday afternoon. Trammell then surrendered.

Last night a coroner's inquest was held at Forestville, a hamlet about a mile and a half west of Great Falls. The jury held Trammell for the action of the grand jury, and he was turned over to Sheriff Allison, who took him to Fairfax. There the self-confessed slayer was lodged in a cell on a charge of homicide.

The shooting was witnessed by Peacock's wife and Jessie Trammell, brother of the slayer, who boarded in the house. Outside the dining-room, where the tragedy was enacted, Peacock's five children were playing. They rushed into the house when they heard the two reports of the shotgun.

At Trammell's solicitation, it is said, Peacock procured a jug of hard cider. The two then sat down at the dining table and began to imbibe. Each glass of the beverage served only to heat Trammell's brain the more, and it was not long before he assumed a dictatorial attitude and declared the horse owned by Peacock was a "nag."

The owner of the horse took exception to this remark. One word brought on another, until finally Trammell was told that he lied.

Trammell staggered up the steps to a room above the dining-room, and with his eyes flashing fire and a loaded double-barreled shotgun at his shoulder, rushed at his sister's husband.

Peacock, terrified at the sight of the gun in the hands of his intoxicated brother-in-law, sprang to his feet, shouted "For God sake, don't shoot!" and rushed toward Trammell to disarm him. Trammell continued advancing toward Peacock, and before the latter or Mrs. Peacock or Jesse Trammell could reach the maddened man, he discharged both barrels of the weapon.

The two charges of buckshot struck Peacock in the center of the breast, and with an agonizing shriek of pain, he fell to the floor.

BANKS MUST REPORT.

The State Corporation Commission, in compliance with a statute bearing on the subject, has issued a bank call which requires all such institutions in the state, save national banks, to submit a report as to their financial condition.

This report, in reality, is a balance sheet of resources and liabilities, and must have reference to fiscal affairs up to September 28d. A similar report was called for about the middle of July.

These calls are made just after the comptroller of the currency makes a call on the national banks. The reports demanded by the commission are required to be filed within twenty days. Upon their receipt, they will be examined by Bertram Chesterman, the clerk who attends to this department of the commission's work, and if all is not shown to be satisfactory by the figures further explanations will be asked.

The law provides a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for noncompliance with the law.

Elected!

This is a momentous period in the history of this country—two great parties battling for political supremacy. This is true in no greater degree with parties than with business houses and many times in the bustle and hurrah incident to increasing trade one is apt to represent an article 100 per cent better than it really is. It has been said that "a word to the wise is sufficient," but our experience has taught us that the bulk of the people buying goods today cannot be led by deceptive methods—they have to be shown. We want to say to you that any goods we place our stamp of approval on are just as we represent them. A trial order of any brand we advertise will prove what we say to be true. We want to submit for your consideration this week a few of our medium grades of Whiskies, which we guaranteed will give satisfaction.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 3, 1908.

THE observation, times change and people change with them, is especially applicable to prevailing conditions. The present presidential campaign is probably one of the most important in the history of the country, a fact which seems to excite but little interest in the younger generation, or those about to cast their first vote. Many now living can remember the juvenile enthusiasm which accompanied a presidential campaign. The boys drank in the political principles of their sires, raised flags bearing the candidates' names, bore transparencies in parades, argued with companions at school and attended the open-air meetings around the flag poles in the different wards. It is not so now. The younger generation know practically nothing of the issues before the country, and it might be safe to say that some hardly know the names of the candidates before the people. The reason for this indifference is not hard to find. The boy of the present day, notwithstanding his superior public school opportunities, is not as wise, after all, as those in the generations which have preceded him. He reads, it is true, but it is not the solid literature upon which his progenitors fed. The sporting pages of newspapers are the portions generally perused by the juvenile class, and the minds of such have but little space for solid reading. There is another reason for the decline in American patriotism which is to be found in the polyglot masses which have during the past half century swollen the population of this country. The original ancestors of the many crosses which now exist never had any interest in American institutions, and their offspring naturally allow their minds to dwell on anything but the political issues of the country.

THE PRESIDENT has received complaints from Kansas that colored people traveling from Kansas to Oklahoma, Texas and other southern states are made the victims of embarrassing circumstances, being arrested by state officers, who claim that they have no right to chair cars in the states above named, and who arrest, eject and otherwise interfere with colored persons who are interstate passengers. The above facts afford another glaring illustration of the truth of the saying that times change and men change with them. Kansas was the breeding ground of the republican party, from which abolition and negro equality doctrines sprang. It was also the theatre of the exploits of John Brown previous to the arrival of that murderous fanatic in Virginia.

THE sailors are getting the worst of the restrictive measures adopted by Admiral Sperry to guard against cholera during the American fleet's stay in Manila bay. The officers are enjoying shore leave and many of them remained in Manila last night, having received written permission from the commanding officers of their ships. No such liberty is granted the men. The men are chafing under the discrimination made against them and are arguing that they are as able to guard against infection as are the officers.

SENATOR FORAKER, of Ohio, has decided to abondon his fight for re-election to the U. S. Senate until after election. He will not stump the state and has cancelled all his speaking engagements. The senator is fast becoming a "has been."

ONE month from the election Mr. Bryan is confident of being elected. Reports he is receiving from the middle western states show that the trend of sentiment is toward democracy.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 3.

W. L. Sturdevant, of the firm of Sturdevant and Sturdevant, attorney of St. Louis, who is prosecuting the townsite suits in Oklahoma, in which Governor Haskell is defendant, has written President Roosevelt a letter regarding them. He says that Governor Haskell is charged with direct participation in frauds through which the Indians were deprived of their property and that his attorneys have played for delay in the trial of the cases.

Five diamond rings, five set with opals, one set with a topaz, one watch and other articles of jewelry were recovered from the well-hole of the sewer at Thirteenth and G street, Washington, yesterday afternoon by laborers employed by the sewer department, working under the direction of Detectives Burlingame and Weedon from headquarters. The jewelry recovered is worth about $1,000, and is the property of Charles W. Butler, residing at No. 1320 G street. Butler's home was entered on September 4 and the jewelry stolen. Last night the detectives named arrested two boys, Alex Speck, age 14, and Joe McNulty, age 11, on suspicion of having committed the robbery and both confessed. They told the detectives that they crawled over a roof and entered the house by means of a bedroom window.

The West Indian hurricane has moved northeastward over the western Atlantic. Fair weather with slowly rising temperature is indicated during the next 36 hours in the middle Eastern and Southeastern states, with frost in the Middle Atlantic States tonight. The winds along the middle Atlantic coast will be light and variable.

Nicholas Longworth's nomination of his father-in-law, Theodore Roosevelt, for president in 1916, in a speech at Rock Island, Ills., yesterday created a smile around the executive offices today where it is claimed it was regarded more as a friendly expression of a relative than as an accurate forecast of what may happen eight years from now. "Why he may be in the inside of a lion before that," was the facetious remark of one individual, referring to the president's African hunting trip next summer and the possible vissitudes of fate during the next few years. Speaking more seriously, however, another official remarked: "There are entirely too many 'ifs' and 'ands' and 'buts' about this proposition, to warrant the attachment of much importance to Mr. Longworth's filial declaration. Putting aside the chances of life and death, which are, of course, in Mr. Roosevelt's favor, it is possible that Mr. Longworth has put the date too far ahead. He is confident of Mr. Taft's election this fall and so am I, and am counting upon him getting a re-election as the reward of a good administration. But suppose Mr. Bryan should be successful this fall, and Mr. Taft should be defeated. In that improbable event, it seems to me that man to whom the republicans would turn four years hence to retrieve their defeat would be Mr. Roosevelt, whose hold upon the people has been so often demonstrated. Eight years is a long period, and many things might happen, so that it really does not seem that discussion of what may be that far ahead is of much value at this time. One thing, however, is quite certain. That is, that Mr. Roosevelt will not drop out of sight entirely after he leaves the White House next March. He will continue to take a lively interest in the politics and welfare of the country after he has ceased to be president. He believes that the purification of politics and business which has been begun under his administration will continue and spread, but that it will require constant preaching and example to ensure that the good work go forward. In some capacity or another the president will take a prominent part in this work and whether he is president again in 1916 or at any other time he will be found fighting along the same lines which have made his administration so popular with the people during the last seven years."

Admiral Sperry cabled from Manila today that health conditions in that city were improving, but that he had decided not to give any of the sailors shore liberty until after the return of the fleet from China in November.

President Roosevelt unexpectedly appeared at the closing session of the International Tuberculosis Congress and extended cordial greeting to the delegates. His remarks were punctuated with cheers and as he left the hall the audience arose and applauded until he finally disappeared. Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou who had been selected to close the session, had uttered but a few words of his farewell when the president entered the hall. The audience rose and the president made his way to the platform. He paid glowing tribute to the work in the advancement of medical science in the last two generations. He took the Panama canal as an illustration of the advancement made by civilization. He said that a short time ago the word Panama canal had become almost a byword, while now it stood above any locality in the United States in regard to healthiness and might well-night be considered a sanitarium. He also said there was as much heroism shown by the doctor who laid down his life in the interests of science as by the soldier who died on the field of battle. The congress, at its final meeting today, decided to meet in Rome in 1911.

President Roosevelt was today engaged in a conference with labor leaders to offset the attacks which President Gompers and other officers of the American Federation of Labor have been making on Judge Taft.

Men close to the president are quoted today as declaring that little persuasion will be needed to induce Mr. Roosevelt to actively enter the fight in New York. It is known that Madison Square Garden has been rented for October 26 by the republicans. No one has yet been assigned to fill the date, and it is expected that the president may be asked to do so.

Further criticism of Chairman Hitchcock by republican party leaders is to be discountenanced by President Roosevelt as inadvisable.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

So hoarse that he has been forced to abandon his western New York speech-making trip, Gov. Hughes left Jamestown, N. Y., today for Buffalo, where he will consult a throat specialist.

Reports from native scorces make the recent calamity in India the worst that ever befell that country. A territory the size of several English countries, densely populated has been turned into an ocean of seemingly bottomless slime, in which lie buried probably 50,000 natives and many Europeans. The dead are so thick in places as to impede the progress of boats which rescuers attempt to push through the quagmires.

Arrested as the members of an automobile party who early today ran over and killed a man and fatally injured a woman in Brooklyn, William Losey, of East Orange, N. J., and David Lowry, William Metz and William Silvernail, all of Newark, N. J., are held by the New York police. The dead man Edward Ryan, of Brooklyn, met instant death when the machine struck him. The woman, who was later identified of Josephine Wagner, received a fractured skull and is dying in the Brooklyn Hospital. After the accident the automobile sped on. There are said to have been six persons in the car.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.

Mr. W. H. W. Moran has sold all his stock in the Manassas Journal Publishing Co. (a controlling interest), to Judge J. B. T. Thornton and Messrs J. Jenkyn and Hawes T. Davies. Mr. Moran in retiring from the business says he has been advised by physicians to lead an outdoor life.

The connection of Messrs. Finney and Boteler with the management of the Alexandria county Monitor has terminated, and the paper is now in the hands of Mr. W. E. Weaver, who has held the position of foreman on the paper since it was first published in the county.

Virginia News.

John L. Trevy, aged forty-seven years, a traveling salesman, died yesterday at his home at Lynchburg, the result of an operation performed three weeks ago.

A. W. Newman, president of the Rockingham National Bank, of Harrisonburg, died suddenly yesterday of paralysis, in the sixty-eighth year of his age.

James O. Lee, of Stafford county, chairman of the board of supervisors, while on a ladder examining some hay in his barn, fell ten feet yesterday and was severely hurt.

William Mayo Atkinson, one of the oldest and most venerable citizens of Staunton, died Thursday night of old age. He was eighty years old and was born in Lunenburg county.

Mr. Wm. T. Jones has left at the office of the Gordonsville Gazette a stalk of prolific corn with twelve ears on it. He thinks the acre of land on which it was grown will make him $75.

Fire destroyed the residence Thursday on the property known as "Wayside," one mile west of Fredericksburg, belonging to Captain M. B. Rowe, of Fredericksburg, and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole.

W. H. Morris, a yard conductor of the Chesapeake and Ohio, at Lynchburg, was struck in the face with a rock while at work Thursday night in the yards. He was knocked unconscious, but, on reviving, managed to make his way home. His wound is serious.

High winds and heavy seas prevailed yesterday off the Virginia, Carolina, and Maryland coasts, with hurricane warning signals still flying. The wind reached a maximum velocity at the Virginia capes of 38 miles an hour, from the north. Practically all shipping is remaining in port.

One negro was instantly killed and three were injured, one of whom may die, late yesterday afternoon by an unexpected cave-in of an excavation for the Pettyjohn office building, which is under construction in Lynchburg. The men were at work under the bank when it gave way without warning.

The resignation of Col. Thomas J. Nottingham, commanding the Fourth Virginia Regiment, has been accepted by Governor Swanson. It is understood, however, that the real reason for the resignation is difference between the colonel and those above him in the rank, which differences have existed for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Shumate, of Leesburg, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Sara Chadwell Shumate, to Arthur Bean Richard, of the Loudoun National Bank, of Leesburg. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, October 14, at 10:30 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Elijah Wright, a white man, thirty years old, was yesterday convicted of murder in the first degree, and will probably be sentenced to the electric chair by the Circuit Court of Dickinson county for the murder of William Seifers. The tragedy was a revolting one, and occurred last January near Hayside, in Dickinson county.

Great mystery surrounds the finding yesterday morning of the body of Ernest Robertson lying in a haystack near Cassanova, on the estate of E. L. Childs. The body was discovered by J. W. Jeffries, who was out hunting, and but for the clothing and letters in the pockets, the body could never have been recognized, as decomposition had set in.

Mary Gladys Harlow, the infant child of H. H. Harlow, fell into a large tub of boiling water at Roanoke, yesterday, and was scalded to death before assistance could reach her. The child lost its balance while playing near the tub and fell backward into the water, its head being entirely submerged. The child's mother was the first to reach it, but was too late to render any assistance. The child was literally boiled to death.

Although it took years of effort on the part of the Virginia sheriffs and others to induce the legislature of the commonwealth to enact a statue prescribing the electric chair as the medium for capital punishment, now that it has been established at the penitentiary, it will do a heavy business this month. The prisons of the State now hold three negroes, all convicted of criminal assault upon women, who are to die within the next thirty days.

North Shirley, who was shot by Andrew Cloud on September 21st, died yesterday at the home of Jacob Lynn, near White Hall, Frederick county, where he was taken immediately after the shooting. At almost the same time Cloud, who was given a hearing before Judge William M. Atkinson, in the county courthouse, in Winchester, was released on $5,000 bail, his bondsmen being half a dozen of the leading residents of the White Hall neighborhood.

Hidden in his cell in the Richmond jail, James Watson, colored, 68 years old, a fugitive from Wilson, N. C., yesterday attempted suicide. He used a dull knife. The condition of the man is now regarded as hopeless. Watson had been told by an officer to prepare to leave with a North Carolina officer. Five minutes later the man was found weltering in a pool of blood, with a deep gash in his throat. The windpipe was severed, the jugular vein scratched, several arteries cut in two and through the ugly wound every organ in the throat could plainly be seen.

About a year ago Mrs. D. M. Lee, of Stafford county, wife of Capt. Dan M. Lee, lost or had stolen from her a very handsome diamond ring valued at $250. A colored girl in her employ was suspected of the theft and was arrested, but acquitted. Last Tuesday, Minnie Brown a colored girl, had a diamond ring cut off one of her fingers at Middleton's jewelry store in Fredericksburg. An officer was notified, who held the ring, which was afterward identified by Miss Edmo Lee, Mrs. Lee's daughters as her mother's property. The colored girl claims the ring was given her by another negro girl, whose name she says she does not know.

Attacked by Moros.

Manila, Oct. 5.—Fifty Moros attacked the scout outpost at Camp Momanga at an early hour this morning, and in the ensuing fight one of the Filipino scouts was killed and two wounded, while nine Moros were slain and several wounded. Two scout rifles and three belts of ammunition were captured. The attack was not wholly unexpected, as the Moros in this locality have been threatening trouble for some time.

News of the Day.

Mr. Kern, in a speech at Birmingham, Ala., yesterday, denounced the use of the so-called Cleveland letter indorsing Taft as a vile stigma.

Daniel S. Emery, a millionaire shipowner, died suddenly at his home, in Newton, Mass., yesterday, aged 75. He was a native of Sullivan, Me., and had been identified with Atlantic coast shipping interests for the past 50 years.

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, in an interview yesterday said he would prefer an American for a son-in-law to a member of the Italian royal family. He also denies a Paris report that the marriage would take place about December 10.

Charged with having fourteen husbands, admittedly the wife of five men, one of whom is declared to have died under suspicious circumstances, Mrs. Marie Bolleyn, arrested after a fight between two of her husbands, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $2 000 at the Harrison street Police Court, Chicago, yesterday.

Wild with rage, Mayor Blaine, of Champaign, Ill., early yesterday morning pulled his revolver and fired at a University of Illinois student, with whom the mayor had been having a hand-to-hand combat. The executive's aim was poor, and the student, who was one of a large party engaged in hazing freshmen, escaped unscathed.

Charles Hommelbocker, foreman of the Baltimore Bargain House sawmill, fell against a buzzsaw yesterday and received a painful cut across the abdomen. When he fell he seized the woodwork of the machine and held himself off, otherwise he would have been drawn in and killed. Other employes, seeing the predicament, pulled him away.

G. D. Thomas, receiver for the estate of John Alexander Dowie, founder of the religious community at Zion City, Ill., yesterday filed a report in the Federal Court showing the assets of the estate to be $1,709 647. A requisition for additional hose to be used in pumping out the cruiser Yankee, ashore on the Spindle, off Hen and Chicken shoals, received last night, leads to the belief that the cruiser has fared badly in the hard blow of yesterday. Mariners who have visited the scene of the Yankee's mishap are skeptical of her chances. They believe that the Yankee is total loss.

In the recent sham battle at Buzzards bay the submarine torpedo boat Octopus was sent down to a depth of 107 feet, where she remained for some time. This is a record dive for submarines having a crew on board and undertaking maneuvers, and was a perfect success. The small submarines, the Cuttlefish, Plunger, Viper and Tarantula were operated at a depth of 50 feet in the same maneuvers.

Nat C. Goodwin was granted a divorce from Jessie Dermot Goodwin (Maxine Elliott), at Reno, Nev., yesterday, on the ground of desertion. The desertion was said to have begun in New York city in September, 1906. Nat Goodwin was married to Maxine Elliott in February, 1897. She was his second wife, the first, Eliza Weathersby, also an actress, having died in 1887.

Fire yesterday afternoon caused considerable damage in the afterhold of the Mallory Line steamer Rio Grande, at Mobile, Ala., and it was neccessary to flood the hold to extinguish the flames. An exploding lamp is believed to have caused the fire. Cotton and domestics, which formed part of the 500 tons of freight in the hold, were damaged. The Rio Grande sank first in 23 feet of water, the upper deck being above the surface.

John M. De Lashmutt, son of the late Judge Elias L. and Eliza De Lashmutt, died at his home near Mount Airy, Md., of heart disease in the seventy-third year of his age. In early manhood Mr. De Lashmutt left his home, in Frederick, Md., and located in the south. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted with the Sixth Texas cavalry, and saw active service throughout the conflict. He was engaged in all hard-fouth battles in which the southwestern army participated and was twice wounded.

Despite the self sacrifice of his daughter Miss Mary Garrison, who besmirched her own reputation on the witness stand and defied the court by tearing up an incriminating letter offered as evidence in an effort to save her father, J. Henry Garrison, has been convicted at Laurens, S. C., of manslaughter for killing J. Lewis Williamson his daughter's fiance. The defence based upon "unwritten law" was that Williamson had been shot by Garrison while acting in an improper manner towards the girl in the parlor at her home. Miss Garrison supported the story in her testimony.

Lieut. Frank Taylor Evans, of the battleship Louisiana, and Lieut. Charles Burt, of the battleship Georgia, will be tried before a special court-martial board, which will assemble on the battleship Wisconsin, at Manila, October 5. The charges against Lieut. Evans are being absent from his station while acting as chief of the deck, using profane and disrespectful language to a superior officer, and intoxication. The charges against Lieut. Burt are for "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman." Evans is a son of Admiral Evans.

Attorney General Bonaparte has replied to the letter addressed to him two days ago by Josephus Daniels, chairman of the press bureau of the democratic national committee, in regard to trust prosecutions. The reply gives a summary of the cases prosecuted, substantially as furnished in a report made public several days ago, a copy of which the attorney general forwarded to Mr. Daniels. Mr. Bonaparte says his department has prosecuted all cases under the Sherman anti-trust or interstate commerce laws that have been brought to its attention from responsible sources, and where the facts warranted such action.

Today's Telegraphic News

Rioting Renewed.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Rioting between the members of the two rival teamsters' unions, which caused the serious shooting of one man and injury to a score of others, was renewed today and the services of a large detail of police were required to restore order. Five men were arrested today after a dozen teamsters had been injured by rival pickets, who showered rocks and bricks upon them. The warriors are members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the United Teamsters of America and the fighting resulted from an attempt of Secretary J. C. Driscoll, of the Furniture Movers' and Expressmen's Association, to force the two organizations to unite. Twenty men deserted the United Teamsters and joined the International Brotherhood. United members waylaid them and attacked them late yesterday. Early today fifty members of the United Teamsters again attacked the deserters. It is feared further trouble will follow this afternoon and tonight.

Turkey and Bulgaria.

Vienna, Oct. 3.—Despite attempts to minimize the seriousness of the breach between Bulgaria and Turkey, the foreign office today is convinced that Bulgaria is not bluffing and that she will back up her threatened declaration of independence with an army of surprising strength.

So far Turkey has shown no sign of weakening, today's message from Constantinople stating that the Porte has decided to send her army against Bulgaria the moment the latter throws off the suzerainty of Turkey.

Automobile Race.

New York, Oct. 3.—With the Simplex and Renault cars running a race that is almost without parellel the cars in the 24 hours' contest at Brighton Beach track today are spinning about the oval with all records broken. Twelve cars are in the race.

T. D. Fickett, a special policeman, who was run down while chasing some boys across the course, is dying in the Coney Island Hospital. Three drivers have been hurt and are also in hospital cots.

Roosevelt for President in 1916

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Republican and democratic leaders here are worked up today over a speech by Congressman Nicholas Longworth at Sterlio, Ills., yesterday during which the president's son-in-law started a bomb for Roosevelt for president in 1916. The republicans declare Longworth's statement was merely the result of his enthusiasm over the president's work, while the democrats profess to see a far sighted plan already on foot to put the president back into the White House after he has rested for eight years.

Preparing for Demonstration.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Preparations for the greatest demonistration of Catholics of the United States since the plenary council of Baltimore over two decades ago are under way here. The event will be the Catholic Missionary Congress of the United States and Canada which will begin here November 15 and end November 18. Nearly sixty archbishops and bishops, of the United States, Canada and Mexico have promised to attend. At a meeting today presided over by Archbishop Quigley, chairman of the board of governors of the Catholic church extension society and Archbishop of Chicago, plans for the meeting were discussed.

DR. KOCH'S THEORY.

Dr. Robert Koch's theory that the human family cannot become infected with the bacilli of bovine tuberculosis probably will no longer be accepted by the majority of the medical and scientific men who are combating the most deadly enemy of mankind.

This decision was reached yesterday, after a debate of more than three hours, among a number af leading French and American scientists, and Dr. Robert Koch at a secret meeting at the New Willard Hotel in Washington. Dr. Koch was on the carpet for more than three hours, and while he would not agree with his colleagues, it was, it is said, because he was an official delegate from Germany and that Kaiser Wilhelm and the entire population of the German Empire believed in the theory advanced by Dr. Koch. It was said that if Dr. Koch coincided with the delegation to the Sixth International Congress on Tuberculosis, thereby losing a great amount of his present prestige in the scientific world, he would be considered an enemy to German dairymen and industries.

The theory of Dr. Koch, that the tubercle bacilli of bovine tuberculosis was yesterday challenged by the solid array of American veterinarian delegates before the International Congress on Tuberculosis. The physicians of this country and of many foreign nations claim bacilli in man and animals are identical. Yesterday's discussion did not, however, by any means close the controversity and doubtless it will be waged indefinitely with the scene shifting from the platform to the medical publications of the world. Secretary Cortelyou, who opened the sixth International Congress on Tuberculosis, brought the official business session of the convention to a close in the assembly hall of the new National Museum at 11 o'clock this morning.

The death knell of the theory of Dr. Robert Kock that bovine tuberculosis is rarely if ever communicated to man, was sounded today when at the closing session of the congress a resolution was adopted recognizing the interransmissibility of bovine and human bacilli.

What has probably been the most mooted question before the scientists of the medical world for many years, is thus disposed of, so far as the preponderance of scientific opinion is concerned.

Not a word of opposition was heard in the hall, the vote was put and the resolution unanimously approved, but in the committee on resolution it was adopted, half an hour before, only after a desperate resistance on the part of the German delegates.

CARLIN SPEAKS IN WASHINGTON.

Congressman C. C. Carlin made an address at the Riggs House in Washington last night to one of the largest crowds ever assembled in that building. During the course of his speech he appealed to the voter to examine into the record of the two great parties and decide for himself. He said the time had come when the voter should have an opinion of his own and not be subservient to anyone. He said.

"The eminent statesman from New York, who seems to be manipulating the campaign to suit his own interests, has ousted Senator Foraker after he was compelled to do so by outside forces. Root, Cannon, and Aldrich should share the same fate. No wonder our nominee asks, 'Shall the people rule?' when men such as these are left in control of branches of the government, which they run to suit interests not in harmony with the country's best interests.

"I cannot imagine any democrat worthy of the name who will not champion the principals enunciated in the platform adopted at Denver. Some may call themselves Taft democrats, and join with the opposition in calling the proposition for guaranty of bank deposits a political nostrum, but if we investigate the question we find this idea had its conception in the republican Congress of 1864. If elected, Mr. Bryan means to apply a full guaranty of bank deposits and thereby assure poor as well as rich of a security for their money. I cannot imagine why men refuse to countenance a proposition which is to the interests of the American people.

"I will predict that our 'Peerless Leader' will carry the country on November 3 by an overwhelming majority. We have only to view the situation in the so-called doubtful States to appreciate that Taft will be defeated and 'my policies' woefully disturbed."

TROUBLE IN ARVONIA.

Twenty-eight men answered the call of Edmund F. Hubard, commonwealth's attorney of Buckingham county, for volunteers to go into the outlaw country and search for Arthur and Benjamin Zimmerman and Charles and William Thomas, the four men believed to be directly responsible for the conditions prevailing there. The posse was formed Thursday night, and the search through the woods and into the haunts of the desperadoes continued until daybreak yesterday. The party traversed many miles of the country invested by the outlaws. Houses which are said to have been visited by the outlaw leaders within the past several days were entered, but no clues as to the whereabouts of the men were ascertained. The search was resumed tonight with reinforcements. The man hunt will continue until the desperadoes are either shot or placed behind the bars.

The other sensational report which gained credence yesterday to the effect that Mr. Charley Newton had been killed by the men has been utterly disproven. Mr. B. Johnson, of Arvonia, visited Mr. Newton in his home, near Payne's Landing, yesterday afternoon, and found that he had not seen any member of the Zimmerman-Thomas party. He was at a loss to understand how such a report could have gotten out.

The people of Arvonia are greatly distressed that such a great sensation should have developed there. Arvonia is a thoroughly civilized place, with cultured and intelligent people.

At this time no citizen of Arvonia expressed fear of the outlaws. They are known to be on the run, and on the defensive, and the trouble now will be to locate them in their wooded fastnesses. The whole trouble it is said has been greatly exaggerated.

A called meeting of the Mount Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., was held yesterday evening at the home of Mrs. E. S. W. Howard, the regent, on north Washington street. Much business of interest was transacted. The election of delegate and alternates to the State conference, to be held in Petersburg, October 14 and 15, resulted in the choice of Mrs. Thos. W. Robinson as delegate and Mrs. J. Stewart Jamieson and Mrs. Robert C. Powell as alternates for regent and delegate.

BODY CULTURE.

Thomas C. Adams, Traveling Director of Physical Education, is in Alexandria, introducing his new method of body and health culture. His system is said to be unsurpassed for office and business men generally. Mr. Adams comes strongly endorsed by pupils he has had in many towns and cities where he has conducted classes. See his advertisement in today's Gazette.

HURT WHILE AT WORK.

Mr. Harvey O. Daniels, son of Mr. Orlando Daniels, was painfully hurt yesterday morning while at work in the labeling department of the Robert Portner Brewing Company, engaged in handling an empty barrel. A nail about 2 inches long was forced through his right hand and the pain was so intense that he had to secure the medical aid of Dr. Moore.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

Tomorrow will be observed as Rally Day. Special services have been planned for morning, afternoon, and night. Rev. G. I. Humphreys, the pastor, will preach at the morning service on the subject "A Great Work."

The rally programme of the Sunday school will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Recitations and songs by members of the different classes, and an address by the superintendent are on the programme. The roll-call of the Blues and Reds will follow. These divisions are rival companies under captains and lieutantants in a friendly campaign that will end Christmas. Already much interest is manifested in the contest.

The evening service is under the direction of the Christian Endeavor Society, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a 5 minute song service, followed by a 10 minute consecrational on the subject "Our vows and their Fulfilmen;" recitation entitled "Immortality;" duet and chorus. An address will be given by a prominent visiting Christian Endeavorer.

The public is cordially invited to all these services. Rally Day will inaugurate for the fall and winter months "The Best Yet" campaign—the significance of which will be announced at the various services.

YOM KIPPUR.

Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement, the most sacred religious day of the Jewish year, begins tomorrow, when at sunset in all synagogues throughout the world services will begin, to continue throughout the following day. It is a fast day and an occasion to pray for forgiveness of sins and the healing of personal misunderstandings and quarrels. Services will be held in the synagogue in this city at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. They will be conducted by Rabbi Samuel Schwartz, of Cincinnati. Yom Kippur is observed in accordance with the command found in Leviticus, xvi:29: "And this shall be unto you a statute forever: In the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, ye shall fast and do no work at all; neither the native or the stranger that sojourneth among you, for on that day ye shall be atoned for to purify you; from all your sins before the eternal shall ye be purified. A Sabbath of Sabbaths, this day shall be unto you and ye shall fast; this is an ordinance forever."

COLONEL DEMPSEY TO REMAIN

An order has been received at the office of the adjutant-general informing him that Col. C. A. Dempsey, who has been detailed for several years for duty with the militia of Virginia, has been directed to remain in this state until further orders. Col. Dempsey is on the retired list and has been in Richmond for four years. He conducts examinations of officers for commission and performs such other duties as the regulations require. Colonel Dempsey has aided in many ways in creating interest in the militia of the state, and since he has been in Richmond has made hundreds of friends by his bearing, courtesy and dignity. The news that he is to remain indefinitely will be welcomed by all who know him.—[Richmond News Leader.

A GHOST SOCIAL.

One of the most unique social affairs of the season was the Ghost Social given last night by the Westminster League to the members of the Presbyterian Church. The manse, on south St. Asaph street, was thronged with a jolly crowd waiting to see what would happen. As they entered the chamber of horrors they were met by a ghost whose unearthly groans were terrifying. And then from every side ghosts, skull heads and skelotons dangled and gleamed. In the semi-darkness of this room various ones told ghost stories. Then out into the light, with music and refreshments, the remainder of the evening was spent most pleasantly. This was but one of a series of delightful and original entertainments given by the league.

CHAPEL SUNDAY SCHOOL OPENS.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Sunday school conducted by the Second Presbyterian Church in the old First Church, on south Fairfax street, will be opened. This Chapel School, as it is called, has had a splendid record in the past, and this year promises to be one of the most successful in its history. The superintendent Mr. P. J. Dempsey, and his assistant, Mr. G. B. Kennedy, will be assisted by a corps of competent teachers. Let the boys and girls of southeast Alexandria take notice, and report promptly at 2:30 o'clock Sunday.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

George Lomax, colored, was before the Police Court this morning charged with assaulting and seriously injuring Robert Withoy', also colored. The assault was committed on Queen street last Monday, and Withoyt was unable to appear until this morning. The evidence was to the effect that Lomax used a wagon-wheel spoke on the head of Withoyt. The accused was fined $50

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

At the corner of Royal and Cameron streets about 12 o'clock today one would have thought there had been a murder committed or an attempt, at least, judging from the crowd assembled. Two fellow countrymen who had gotten rid of a load of vegetables in market had evidently taken on a "load" of other essentials to happiness or misery, as the case may be. One was loud in his praise of Bryan, the other in his advocacy of Taft. Both spoke in the "spirit" of harmony in which they had imbibed. No arrests were made and the crowd separated.

THE ALEXANDRIA GERMAN.

The Alexandria German Club will proceed to effect its annual organization sometime during the ensuing month. It is the custom of this club to have a new organization the beginning of every season, though there are some who think that a permanent organization would be the better plan. It has been also suggested that exertions be made to increase the membership to sixty and establish that number as the limit. There are quite a number prominent in the club who are desirous of increasing the number of dances to be given during the season.

MONEY UNEARTHED.

Mr. F. M. Davis, who lives near Burkes Station and conducts a grocery store at Braden's Cross Roads, recently purchased property from Mr German, a real estate agent of Fairfax Court House, known as the John Barker estate It was understood that Mr. Barker had lots of money but at his death none could be found, and it was presumed it was buried. A son of Mr. Davis a short time ago while plowing to put in a crop of rye unearthed a can containing the money—most of which was in 50 cent notes, 10 cent notes and ten and 5 cent pieces.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Chief Goods today received a dispatch from W. P. Chandler, Chief of Police of Knoxville, Tenn., requesting him to arrest a machinist named C. O. Tulloch, who is wanted in that city for felonious assault. The chief and Officer Beach found Tulloch at the southeast corner of Prince and Fayette streets, and took him in custody. Upon reaching the station house Tulloch signified his willingness to return to Knoxville without a requisition. He has a wife and three children in this city.

REGISTRATION DAY.

This is registration day and those who wish to vote in the presidential election on November 3 next must have their names on the registration books before sundown this evening. Comparatively few voters have registered today. There was some complaint this morning that some of the registrars were not at the polling places when voters called to register.

To the People of Alexandria

Highly appreciative of the manifold courtesies extended us during the last five years, we would be pleased to do something expressive of our thankfulness for the many kindnesses extended. We know that we can do nothing that would be excepted to by the individual customer and we have concluded, as an expression of thanks to our many friends for their uniform kindness to us, to donate 10 per cent of our entire receipts of next Wednesday and Thursday—which will be our fifth anniversary and fall opening days—for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital, an institution which deserves the highest consideration. In donating the receipts of these two days we have selected the BEST time of the year and are justly proud to lend what aid we can to such a worthy institution.

Thanking the public for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same, I am,

Yours truly,
